

Faculty of Philology UO
English Philology, practical profile

BA level FULL TIME studies

MODULE LEARNING OUTCOMES acc to PRK 2019

Since 2019-2020

MODULE: Business English

Symbol	Description of the learning outcome	Reference to the PQF Knowledge: Graduate
m-W-1	has the ordered knowledge of selected concepts in economy, project management, change management, international commerce, commercial law, internationalisation processes, logistics and supply chain management, or relations in business, among other aspects of business theory	P6S_WG
m-W-2	has the basic knowledge of selected IT tools and IT systems in business	P6S_WK
m-W-3	has the basic knowledge of business, legal, social, economic, or political institutions and their role in business world	P6S_WG Skills: Graduate
m-U-1	has the ability to search for, analyze, select and use information on business topics utilizing various sources and draw valid conclusions	P6S_UW
m-U-2	can utilise IT resources to conduct business tasks	P6S_UW
m-U-3	can solve problems related to business	P6S_UW
m-U-4	is able to use the English language at C1 level in writing and speaking with relative fluency, accuracy and communication efficiency in a wide range of business topics	P6S_UK
m-U-5	can build valuable relations in the business context with the use of verbal and non-verbal means of communication	P6S_UO Social competences: Graduate is ready to m-K-1	specify business priorities for implementation of goals and tasks designated by others	P6S_KK
m-K-2	shape their own views on business theories and practices on the basis of gained general and detailed knowledge	P6S_KK
m-K-3	think and act in an enterprising way	P6S_KK
m-K-4	assume various professional roles in the context of business and comply with the rules of professional ethics	P6S_KR